Sub:- Clarification regarding determination of "Distress Condition" for appointment under the Rehabilitation Assistance Scheme.

In order to ensure uniform interpretation of "distress condition", while determining "Deserving Case" for appointment under Rehabilitation Assistance Scheme, Government in G.A.Department vide their Resolution No.33213/Gen., dated 15.12.2004 have, after taking into account the fifth pay revision, been pleased to decide that the total annual family income from all sources including Family Pension & Temporary Increase(T.I.) must not exceed Rs.45,000/- for a family to be in distress condition.

2. Now, clarifications are being sought for from different levels as to whether Family Pension & T.I. admissible as on the date of application or the amount payable/received at the time of appointment shall be taken into consideration.

3. It is clarified that amount of Family Pension & T.I. admissible on the date of application, shall be calculated to determine the eligibility of the applicant for consideration of appointment under the Rehabilitation Assistance Scheme.
