

Sl.	Subject	FAQ	Clarification
1	Relaxation of Residency period for promotion to the next higher rank in the cadre.	Is the Administrative Department required to obtain concurrence of General Administration & Public Grievance Department for relaxation of residency period for promotion to the next higher rank ?	The Administrative Department (A/D) shall examine the proposal for relaxation of eligibility criteria of service experience for promotion to next higher rank in the respective cadre, with reference to parameters indicated below and obtain Government approval at their level for such relaxation. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>(a) As to whether, the public interest is involved behind the proposed relaxation.</li> <li>(b) As to whether, the gradation list has been correctly prepared by the A/D while fixing inter-se-seniority of the members of the rank (including catch up principles).</li> <li>(c) As to whether, the proposed relaxation shall cover the members (except the members against whom D.P./Criminal cases are pending) without leaving a senior person for the promotion under consideration.</li> <li>(d) As to whether, the enabling provisions are existing in the relevant cadre rules empowering the Government to relax the provisions of rules in exercise of the same.</li> <li>(e) As to whether, the relaxation proposal is derogative of the provisions of rules since repeatedly moved (each year) by the A/D instead of taking steps to amend the provisions of relevant cadre rules.</li> <li>(f) As to whether, the relaxation proposal is within the ceiling limit of 50% as on the date prescribed in the respective cadre rules.</li> </ul>